WAGON TRAIN REGISTRATION PRIVACY POLICY:

Fort Seward, Inc. requires your contact and payment information, in order to process your order. However, we believe in keeping your contact information confidential. We do not practice giving out our mailing list to other businesses, nor will we publish it on our websites.

Although we hope each of us have a safe and fun covered wagon train, we all know life, animals, and Mother Nature is sometimes unpredictable. For that reason, we also require all Registrants to provide emergency contact information, should you be become sick or injured during our annual covered wagon train. This is so we can contact those you wish us to contact, should it becomes necessary to do so.

Occasionally, we may email you about our future covered wagon trains, special discounts, or new novelty items that we offer on our own website.
